Station Art
Valleymetro is proud to continue the tradition of including art that is meaningful to the rider, the community and the public transit system. We encourage you to take a moment to stop and reflect on the artwork you see at the station, snap a pic and share your appreciation for #ArtsLine.
Introducing Valley Metro Rail as ArtsLine. ArtsLine showcases artists, station art and connects to arts & culture destinations along the light rail corridor. Let ArtsLine help you discover the arts. Learn more at valleymetro.org/artsline.

HOW TO RIDE

1. Buy a transit pass at any light rail station. A 1-Day Pass costs $4 and is good for unlimited rides all day on both light rail and local bus.
2. Validate your pass at the fare vending machine before boarding.
3. Check the system map at the light rail station to determine which direction you’re traveling and train you need to board.
4. Pay attention to the signs on the front and side of the train that show the train’s final destination.
5. Trains stop at every station and upcoming stops are announced on the train. Please be ready with your belongings when it’s your destination.
6. Share your ArtsLine experience on social media by tagging @valleymetro and using #ArtsLine.

Enhancing our Lives

The arts play an important role in the beauty, livability and economic development of communities. The creation and enjoyment of visual art, design, music, dance, theater, literature, natural history and cultural history enrich our lives; through them we express our humanity and communicate in ways accessible across all cultures and languages.

Valley Metro and its partnering cities of Phoenix, Tempe and Mesa are proud to continue and contribute to a long history of support for the arts and cultural venues and activities that make the Valley of the Sun a great place to live and visit.

Valley Metro is proud to continue the tradition of including art that is meaningful to the rider, the community and the public transit system. We encourage you to take a moment to stop and reflect on the artwork you see at the station, snap a pic and share your appreciation for ArtsLine.
Introducing Valley Metro Rail as ArtsLine. ArtsLine showcases artists, station art and connects to arts & culture destinations along the light rail corridor. Let ArtsLine help you discover the arts.

HOW TO RIDE

1. Buy a transit pass at any light rail station. A 1-Day Pass costs $4 and is good for unlimited rides all day on both light rail and local bus.
2. Validate your pass at the fare vending machine before boarding.
3. Check the system map at the light rail station to determine which direction you're traveling and train you need to board.
4. Pay attention to the signs on the front and side of the train that show the train's final destination.
5. Trains stop at every station and upcoming stops are announced on the train. Please be ready with your belongings when it's your destination.
6. Share your ArtsLine experience on social media by tagging @valleymetro and using #ArtsLine.
